Tutoring Experience

Over the last five years, I've tutored students in IB, A-Level, and IGCSE Chemistry, focusing on key exam topics. My students consistently achieve high marks, benefiting from my detailed explanations and understanding of chemistry concepts. I've had the pleasure of guiding students through both standard and advanced chemistry topics.

In addition to IB and A-Level, I've worked with students preparing for undergraduate chemistry courses. My diverse experience allows me to cater to different learning needs, helping students reach their academic goals and progress to prestigious universities worldwide.
